

Outgoing information from the semi-trailer		Data reception and processing truck information block R5		RF block G1
-Coded data from the trailer are transmitted via RF communication - Information is transmitted to the information block via RF communication R5 R8- RF open-close door sensor	➡	-acceptance of all incoming information -information processing and forming into packages - coding of information packages	➡	-controls autonomous siren R1 - transmits all information to the GSM-GPS device R3 - data transmission to the control panel R2
				- the alarm is on or off -data reception and decoding from the trailer - receiving and processing data from fuel tank sensors G4